We'll Be Ever True.*

Loyal Hearts and Voices Always Raise This Song to You.

TO HONOR — 20

TO ASSOCIATE — 70

TO LEARN — 124

TO PATRONIZE — 200

NOW IS THE TIME . . .

TO NOTICE — 30

TO COMPETE — 46

TO GUIDE — 106

PROLOGUE

Time is passing — quickly. With each new day more precious memories are collected into our treasure chest of golden experiences and meaningful relationships. We recall those endless hours of studying for math, staying for chemistry "Idiot Class" and club meetings, and cheering our teams on to victory. Each day brings hope afresh to spur us onward to a dream, a goal.

For that high star we reach because NOW IS THE TIME — TO LIVE . . . TO LEARN . . . TO GROW.

... TO DEDICATE

W. S. PARRISH

A life of dedication to students, teachers, family and friends... our faithful principal for 19 years... a leader in school administration work for 40 years... life memberships in state and national associations... active member of First Baptist Church... Ruritan Club, Masonic Order, Bearcat Club... initiator of constructive and educational changes... growth of the school... from 20 teachers and 550 students to 65 teachers and 1,450 students... broader curriculum... Area Trade School... College preparatory courses... advanced subjects... NJROTC... expansion of new wing and west wing... formation of canteen... a man worthy of our respect and appreciation... self-sacrificing devotion... human understanding... untiring efforts and leadership... to you, Mr. W. S. Parrish, we dedicate this 1971 BEARCAT.

Jana and Joy escort Mr. Parrish during his last Homecoming.

Mr. Parrish displays his gift at the faculty Christmas Party.

Our principal shares a few kind words of advice.

Mr. Parrish meets with an NEA officer.

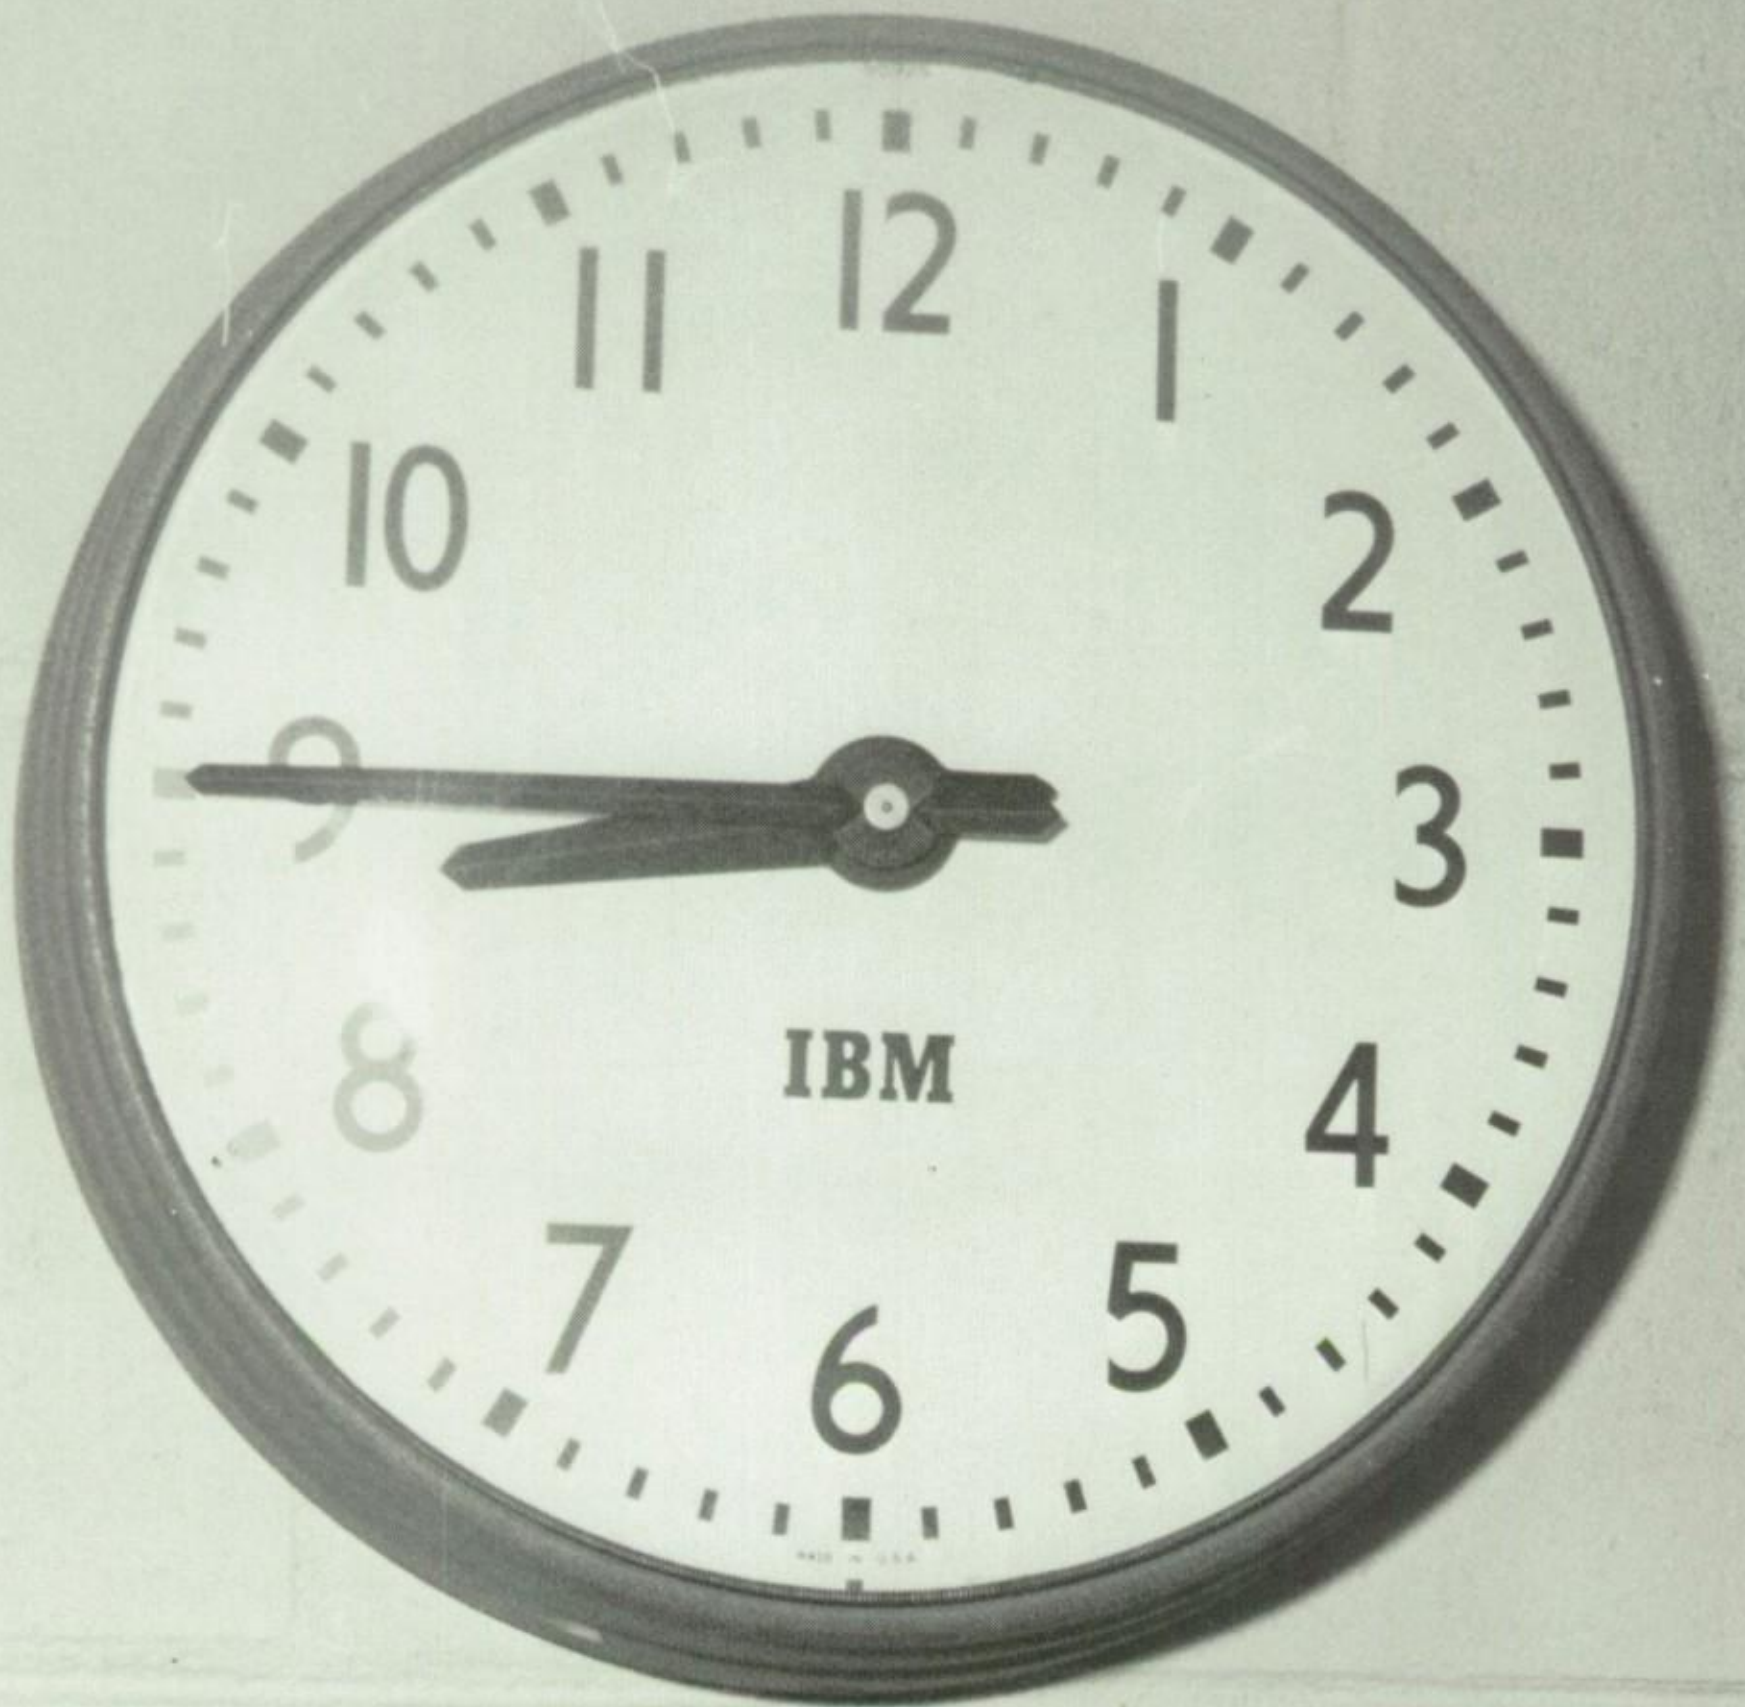

"Now here's where I live!"

Mr. and Mrs. Parrish celebrate his 65th birthday at the surprise party given by the faculty.

NOW IS THE TIME . . .

"Ugh! Another Monday."

Students push through crowded halls.

Wading to second period can often be "ducky!"

... TO BEGIN

A typical day in the life of a Bearcat... last-minute homework to do during homeroom... "Can I borrow your history notes?"... traffic jam at the Senior Corner... "I just know I'm going to be late"... waiting for second lunch... "It's here!"

A quick "pit stop" at the water fountain.

"What delicious meal have they concocted for us today?"

B-C collects more cans of food for needy families at Christmastime than Airport.

... TO LEAD

Your fellow Bearcats . . . in school affairs . . . Student Body Officers selected . . . planning a Christmas Post Office . . . helping needy families have a happy Christmas . . . Executive Council plans projects to benefit others . . . writing letters . . . Building leaders for a better world!

PRESIDENT
Leigh Leventis

VICE-PRESIDENT
Dickie Crout

SECRETARY
Debbie Hawkins

TREASURER
Steve Hill

... TO LIVE

Students everywhere . . . in all types of activities . . . feeding pigeons at the State House . . . pushing through the halls . . . adding an extra special touch to a football game . . . facing a new day . . . communicating with the older and the younger generations . . . tons of homework . . . a year of precious memories.

Look at those innocent little freshmen faces!

Students show concern for the starving pigeons.

NJROTC cadets open another football game patriotically.

... TO PREVIEW

"This is my country" . . . beginning a new season . . . proud Bearcats . . . runner-up for spirit award . . . burning the Viking . . . the initial pep rally . . . starting the year off right with a victory . . . patriotism . . . Bearcats united as proud Americans . . . "This is Bearcat country!"

Bearcats test their strength against the Spring Valley "Vikings" in Sportsarama.

Angela Gordon, Miss Bearcat 1970, represents B-C in Miss Sportsarama.

Cheerleaders are flying high for an opening victory.

"I never knew making a Viking could be so hard!"

"Goodness, how you've changed during the summer!"

... TO START A NEW YEAR

"Look out! We're back." . . . new schedules . . . a new locker combination to memorize . . . "Now where am I supposed to be?" . . . new faces . . . old friends . . . "Room 224? But I'm hunting for room 24!" . . . new teachers . . . summer's over . . . time to buckle down and get some hard studying done . . . "How many more days until summer?"

Students return to the daily school grind.

"Gee, it's great to be back!"

"This summer I caught a fish this big!"

First day brings headaches, getting a schedule change.

... TO STUDY

A busy schedule... strange fumes from the chemistry room... "Do, re, mi, fa..."... practice, practice, practice... dissecting sharks?... keeping ourselves physically fit... "Hey, I'm having fun learning!"

Fancy mud pies?

"Gimme dat thing, gimme, gimme dat thing..."

"The sound of Christmas, merry Christmas to you..."

The mad scientists at work!

"Am I the only one playing this song?"

"I've just got to catch this one!"

"asdf jkl; asdf jkl; asdf jkl;"

New courses . . . Fashion and Interior Design, otherwise known as FID . . . personal typing . . . "Look at that wiggly bug!" . . . mechanical drawing . . . training major leaguers . . . "There's so much to learn."

"Eek! I just stuck my finger."

"That has got to be the straightest line that I've ever drawn."

... TO FIGHT, CHEER,

Homecoming Week... hidden tickets... "Have you seen a Yellow Jacket around here anywhere?"... hoping for a victory... roasting that wasp... boosting extra spirit for the big game... mourning for that helpless bee... excitement.

Senior players find the hidden Yellow Jacket.

Coach Herlong predicts a Bearcat Victory.

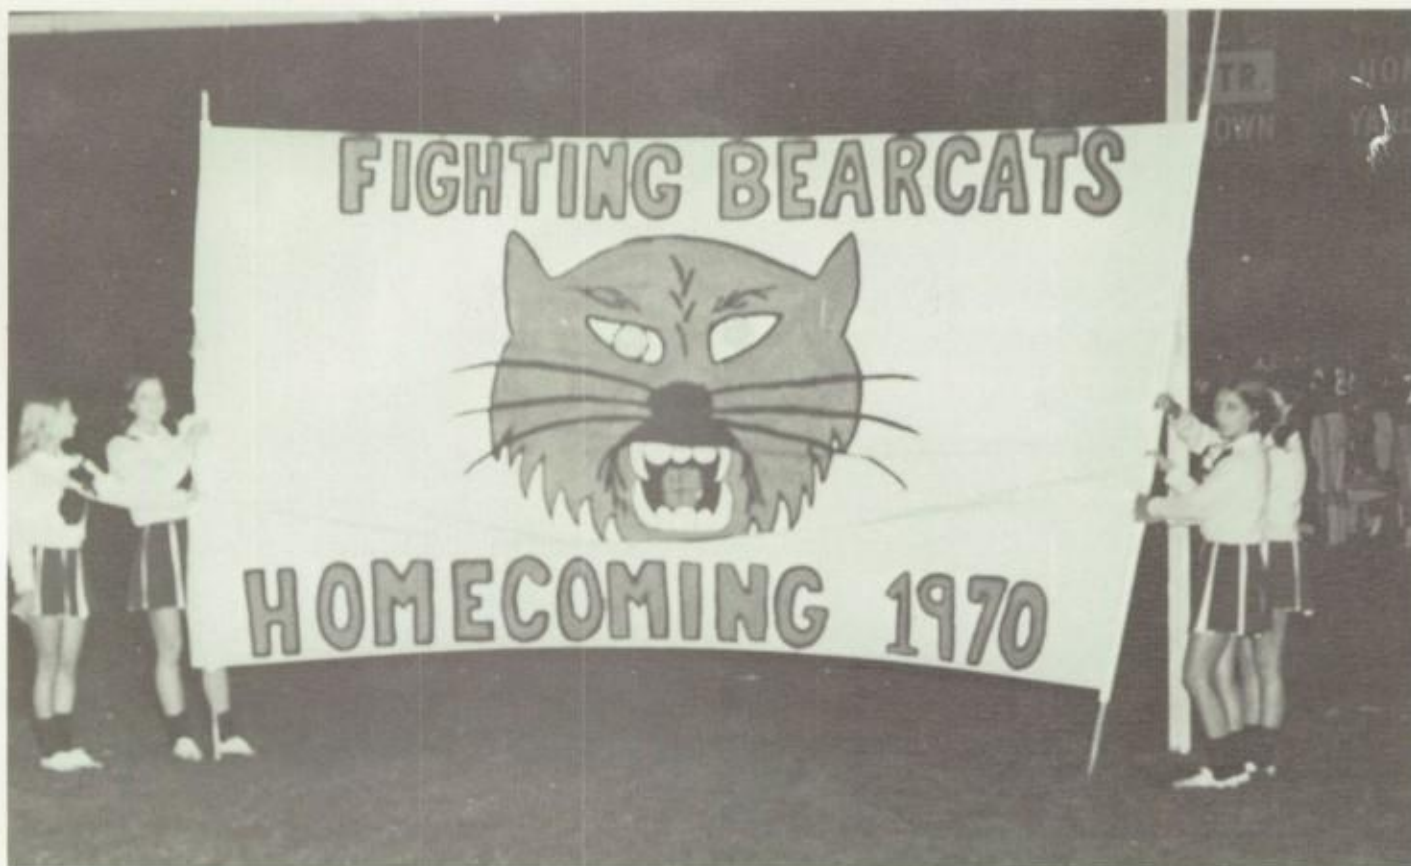

Booster Club sells tickets to annual dance.

"Yes, he should be burning pretty nicely by now!"

"Presenting the world's greatest . . ."

Bearcats are charging for a victory.

AND WIN!

A crowd, a team, and a lot of spirit . . .
 "We're gonna beat 'em; send 'em on home" . . .
 the suspense of half-time activities . . . crowning of the queen . . . proud sponsors . . . "Victory, victory, B-C High!" . . . a memorable and happy homecoming!

A spirit-filled crowd cheering themselves hoarse.

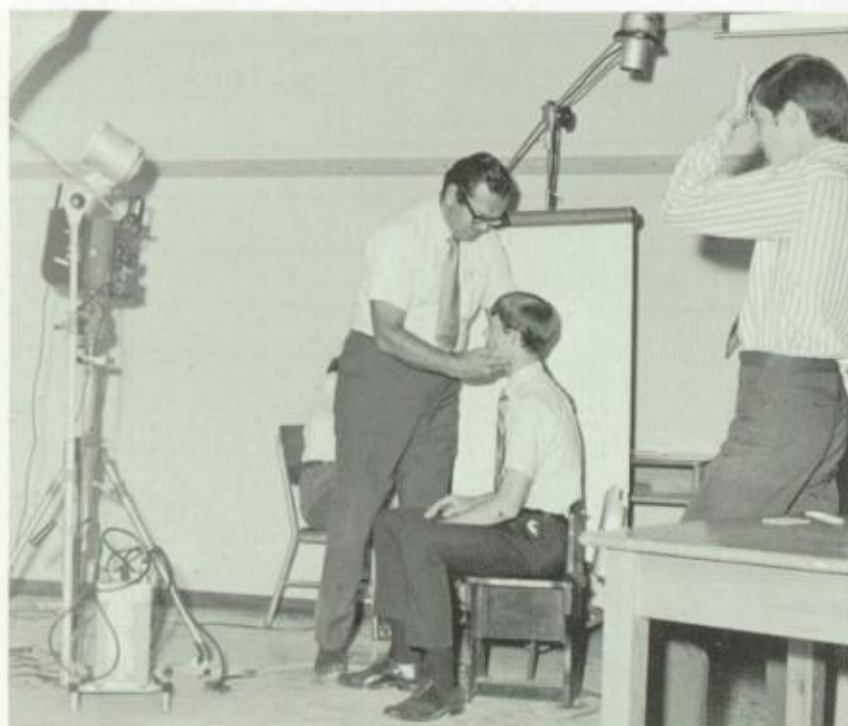

Connie Majure is crowned the 1970 Homecoming Queen.

... TO HIGHLIGHT

Highlights during the year... special awards... College Night... "I think I'll go to Krovney Tech"... primping for school pictures... assemblies... painting store windows... "Ours are prettier!"

Students pose for Bearcat camera.

NJROTC cadets receive awards.

Students "visit" the colleges of their choice.

Art students paint the Christmas spirit all over town.

Senator Floyd Spence speaks to ACTION.

NJROTC cadets pass in review.

Mr. Herbert A. Wood discusses school problems with the Inter-school Council.

Special events . . . distinguished speakers take time to talk with us . . . Open House . . . inspection of NJROTC by Navy officials . . . Bermuda Day . . . Senior Prom . . . "the annual!!"

Mrs. Neely chats with parents at Open House.

Anticipation mounts as 1971 BEARCAT is revealed.

... TO END ANOTHER DAY

"Will sixth period ever end?" . . . the final bell . . . buses . . . books . . . "I'm finally going home."

"Thank goodness it's Friday!"

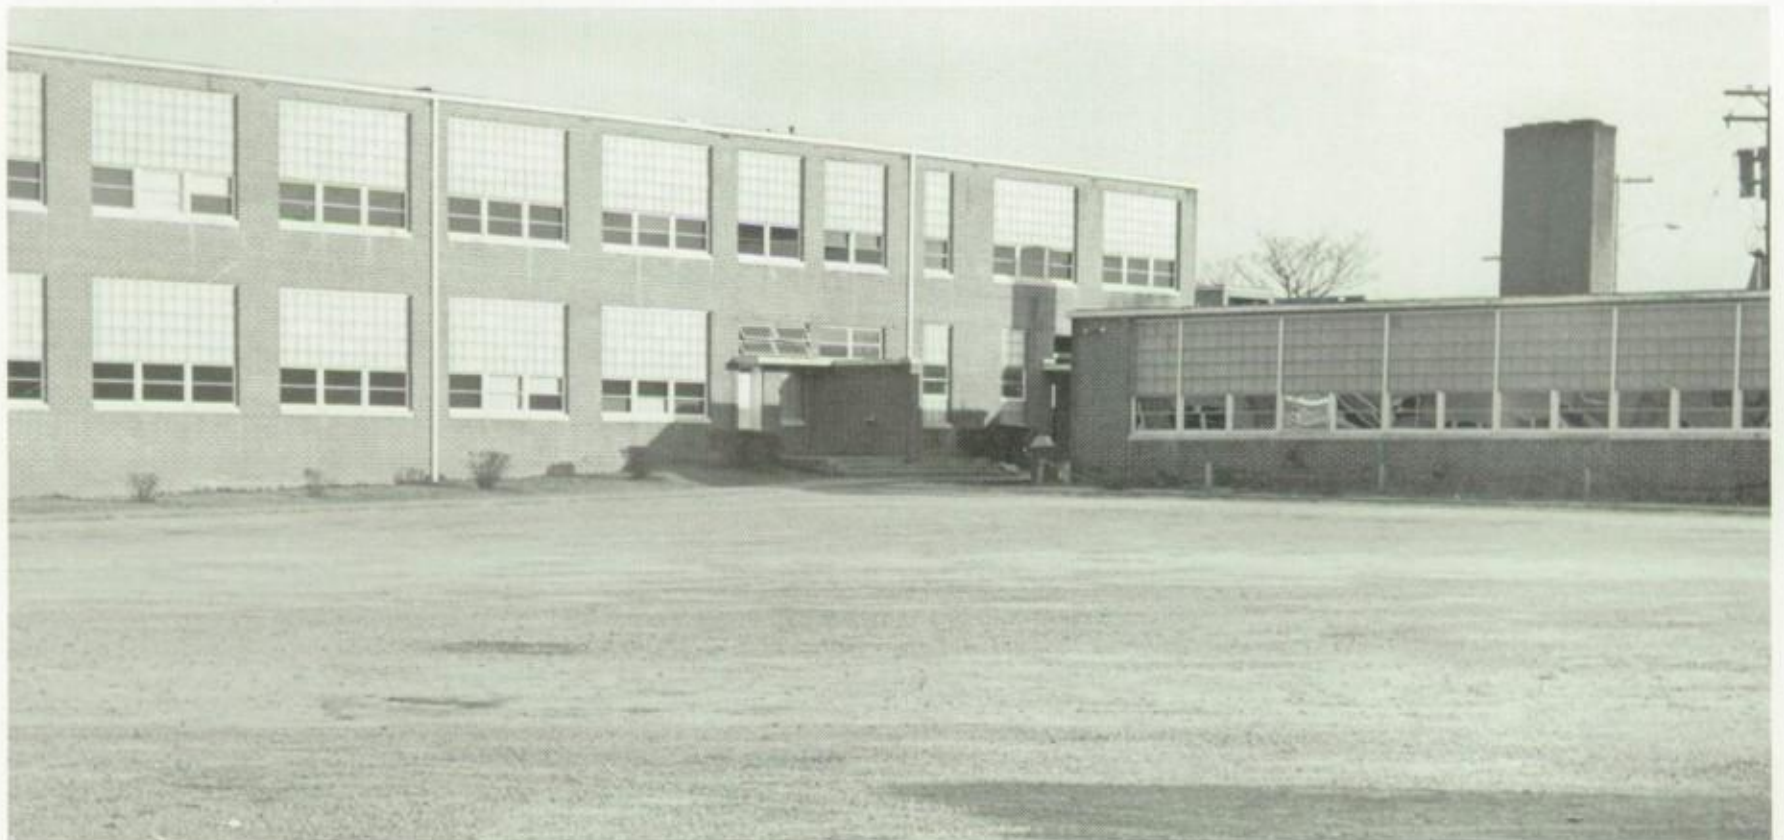

"Why is the one book I need always on the bottom?"

The sounds of silence.

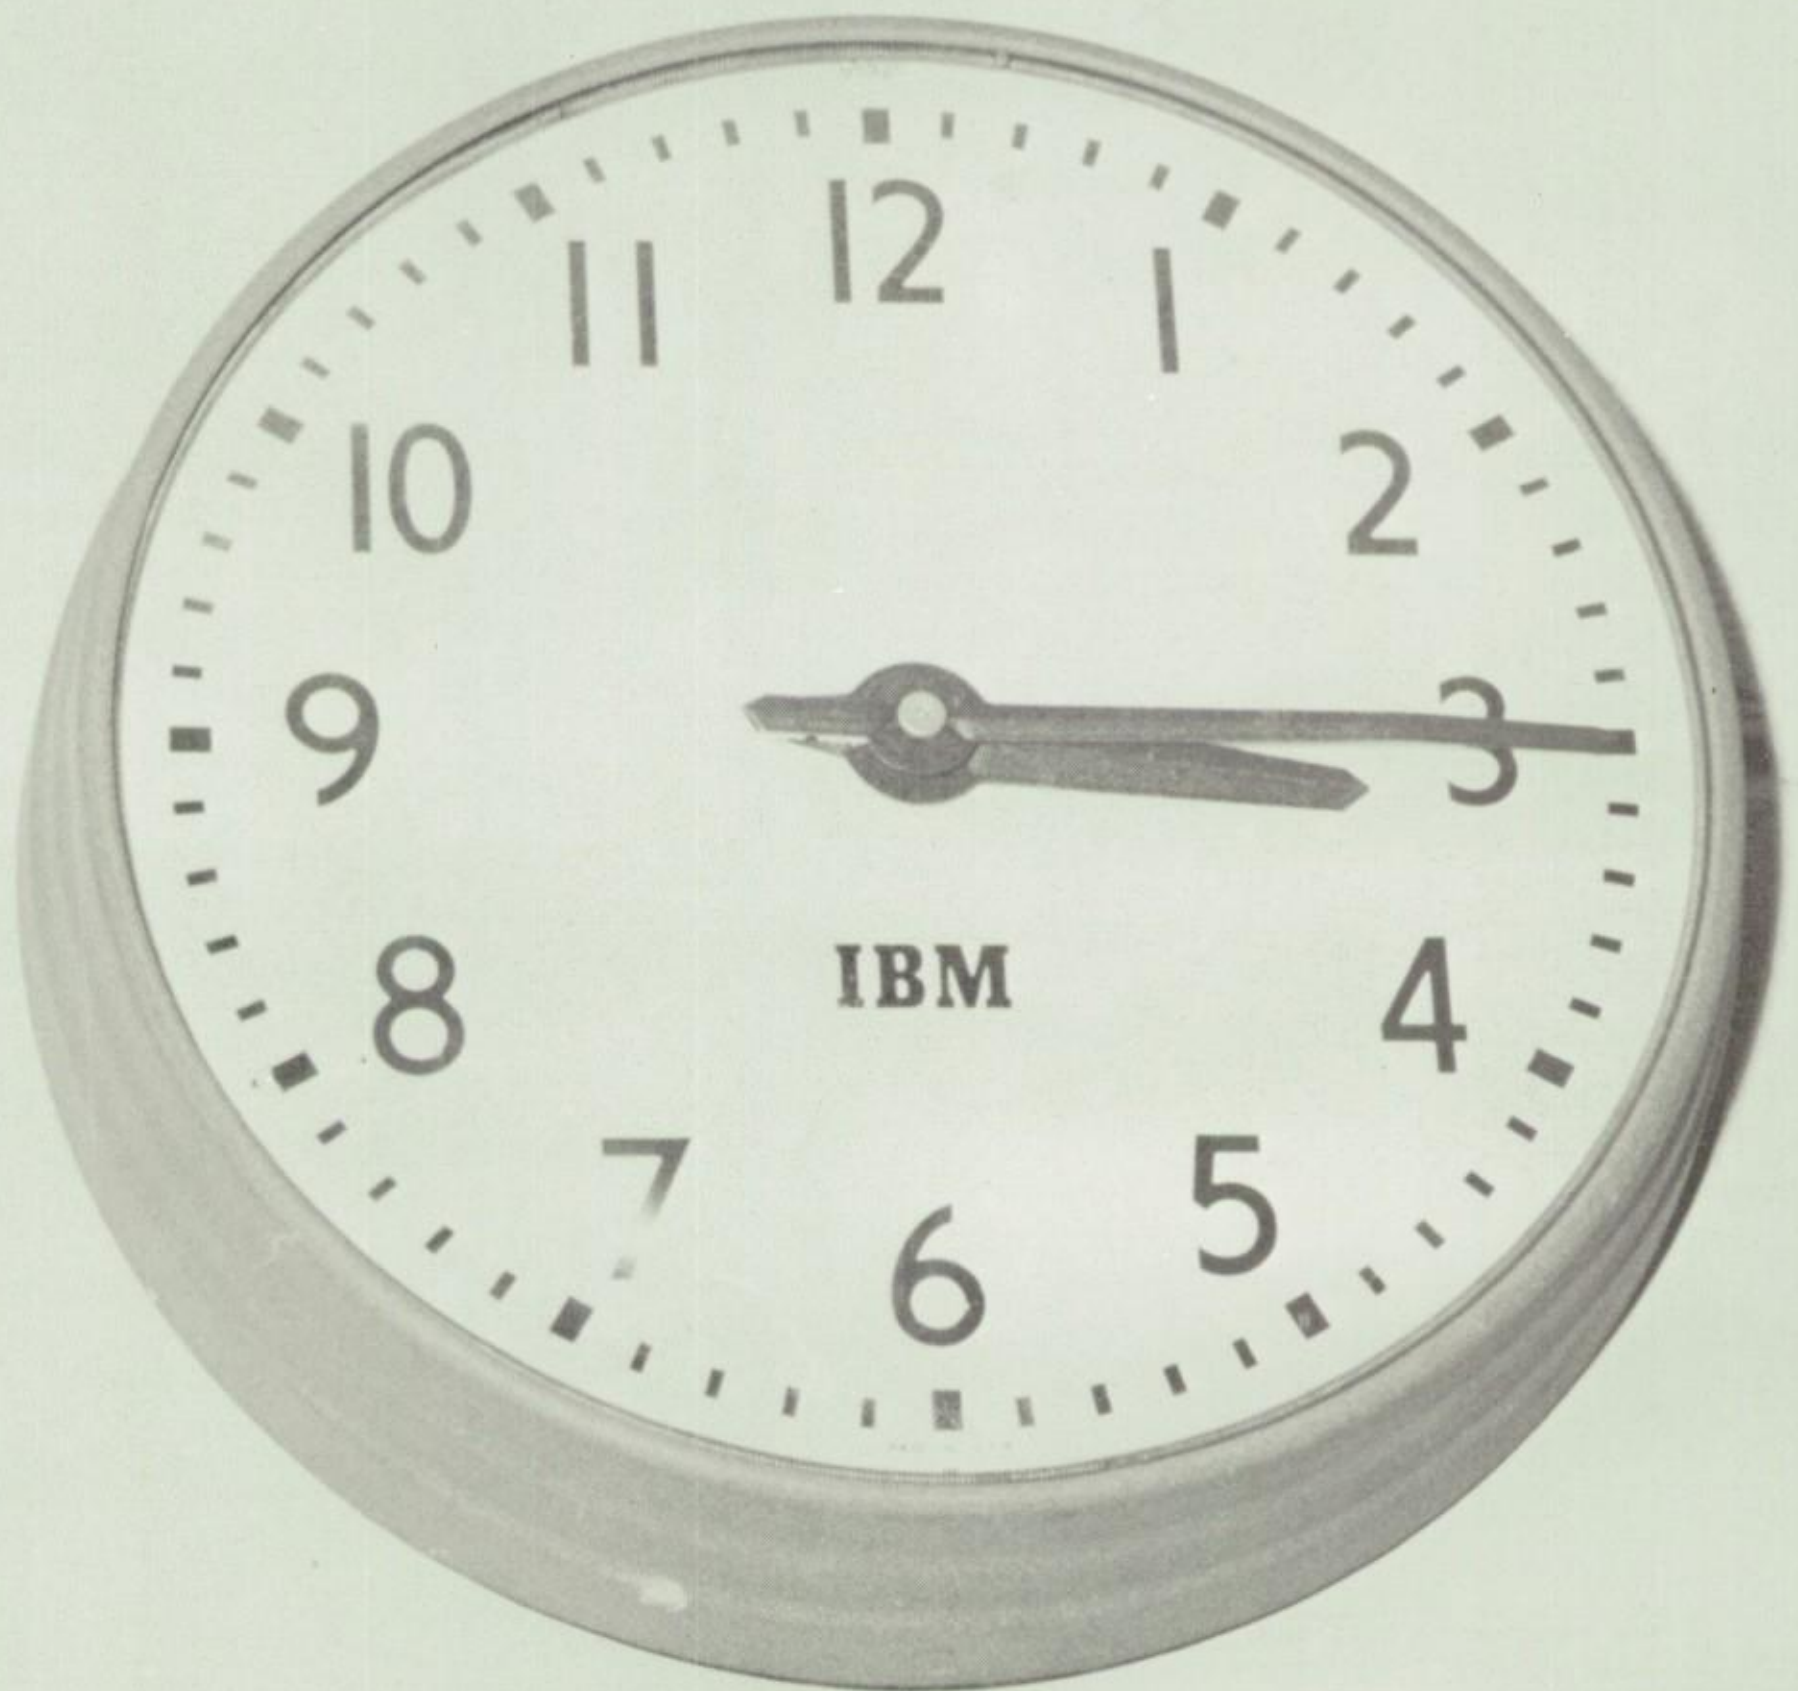

"We all live in a yellow submarine . . ."

.... TO GO FORTH TO SERVE

Miss Anne Clements, Dean of Women at Columbia College; Mrs. Judy Summers Toole, former Miss Cayce-West Columbia; Mr. Ken Brown, Trust Officer, Citizen and Southern National Bank.

Each of the eight class beauties were judged on the basis of beauty, personality, poise, posture, voice, and grooming. The judges got acquainted with each girl and scored them according to their attractiveness and natural look. They chose the girl that would best represent our school. All of the best of Brookland-Cayce is wrapped up in the 1971 Miss Bearcat.

Three judges were present to select the 1971 MISS BEARCAT. The members of the feature section were host to the tea which was attended by the eight class beauties, yearbook staff and advisors, and Mr. Parrish. After the judging was completed the beauties relaxed and compared their formal pictures which they viewed for the first time.

SENIOR DRAMA CLUB

The Senior Drama Club works to create an interest in dramatics among B-C students. It gives them a chance to develop their dramatic skills and to perform before audiences. Every year this club presents a 1-act play for assembly and a 3-act play for the public. As they perform these dramas they learn the basics of stage production and direction as well as the importance of careful expression and speech. Each year a fine performance can be expected.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The members of the Future Business Leaders of America learn about business from their business courses. They are able to use these skills in the business world they are preparing for. This year the club published a school directory and visited the Girl's Industrial School for their service project.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Many girls join the Future Homemakers of America to prepare themselves for future situations of family living. The FHA promotes this growing appreciation for the joys and satisfaction of homemaking, and encourages girls in home economics careers. The club furnishes each room with needle and thread to prevent interruptions.

SENIOR SPONSORS

Our final year . . . planning activities . . . ring fitting . . . cap and gown measurements . . . distribution of college material . . . chaperoning those diabolical Seniors . . . guiding our footsteps . . . the extra boost to a memorable senior year . . . our gratitude to them.

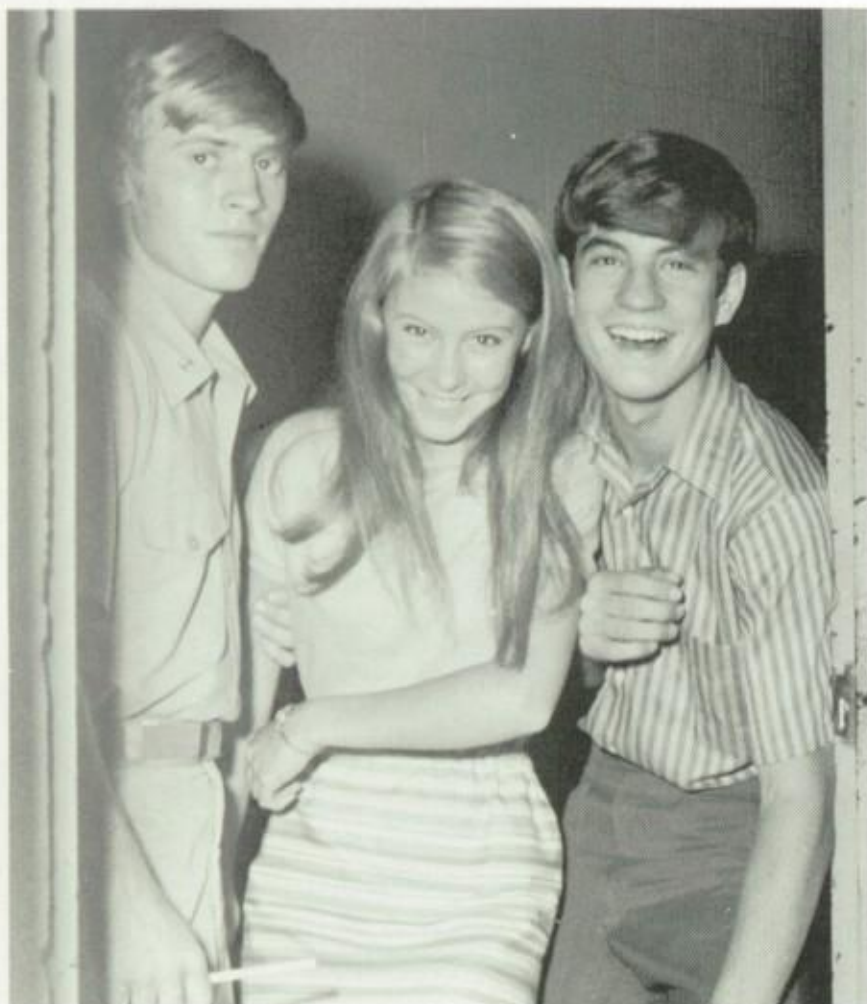

Mrs. Lindler, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Evans.

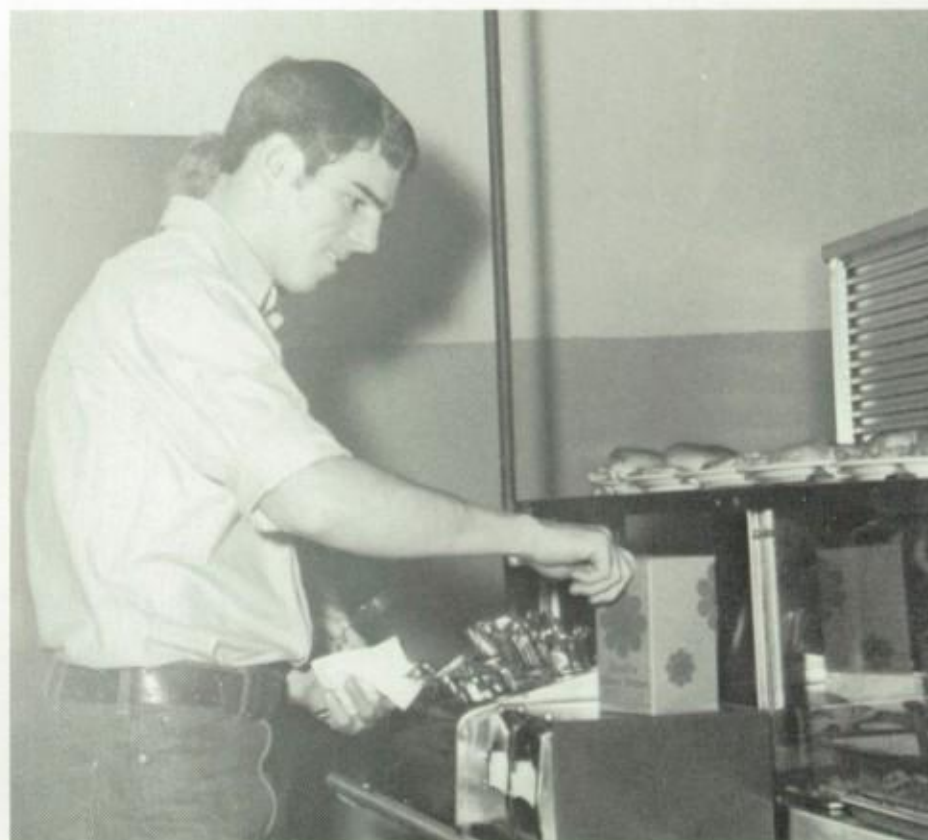

Coach Crump, Chief Vaughn, Capt. Wall.

SENIOR YEAR IN REVIEW

Seniors burst forth into their final year as Bearcats.

A nourishing meal for a growing senior.

"Do you guys really like my legs?"

Senior racketeers "Racket the Jacket."

"What are we going to do to North Augusta?"

The senior ring . . . a symbol of four long, hard years . . . a mark of distinction . . . a sign of pride in Brookland-Cayce High School . . . a highlight of our final year as Bearcats.

ARRIVAL OF RINGS — FINALLY!

"You're kidding! My ring didn't come?"

Seniors display their sign of distinction!

"Right on, seniors!"

CHRISTMAS — AND OUR LAST EXAMS

Days reflect the holiday spirit . . . a joyous season of giving . . . a merry, merry Christmas . . . the aftermath . . . mid-semester exams . . .

Exchanging of mysterious gifts . . .

A merry Christmas season as Seniors.

meaningful tokens of affection.

Seniors prepare for that last term paper.

Last-minute cramming for those mid-semester exams—hopefully our last.

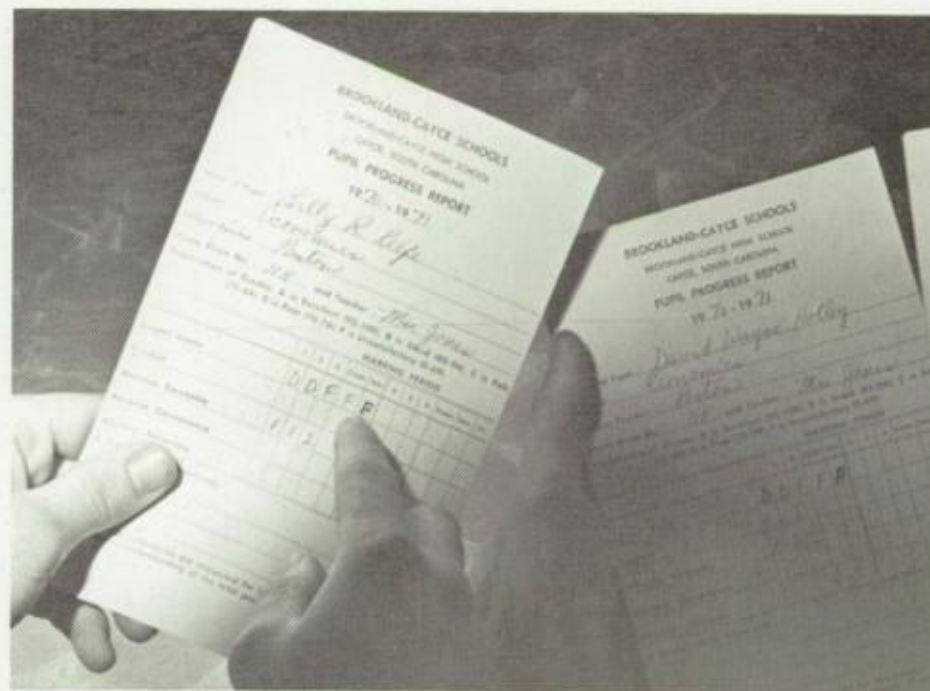

The results of cramming are evident on these senior faces.

REFLECTIONS OF A BRIEF SENIOR YEAR

The time approaches . . . our last exam grades . . . that last report card . . . measurement for caps and gowns . . . invitations . . . as our senior year terminates and we begin anew.

Measurement for caps and gowns and . . .

"Reckon I can pull that up by June?"

the ordering of graduation invitations foreshadow the end of our senior year.

Rejoice! That last report card.

COMMENCEMENT — A TIME OF BEGINNING

Time was when we as vibrant youth entered thy halls of learning To grow, to labor to reach that highest star, our cherished goal.

*Oftentimes we have stumbled on the sharp stones of discouragement, opposition, and error
But we arose each time to push onward, guided by the concern and wisdom of parents, teachers, and friends.*

*Now as we graduate we realize this must not be the end;
For this is a time of beginning, a time to meet the challenge of a new world throbbing with life.*

*We hope for a meaningful place to fill, opportunities to meet,
And success that is untarnished by the stain of injustice to another.*

*Forgetting ourselves, we must "go forth to serve"—
"To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."*

NOW IS THE TIME . . .

to reminisce over the days gone by. Without you, the students of Brookland-Cayce High, none of it would have been possible; for you are the yearbook. The many activities, sports, and honors are all a part of your year. We, the staff of the 1971 BEARCAT, sincerely hope that this yearbook will represent your year of happiness, success, and learning as a Brookland-Cayce Bearcat.
